History of the Pittsburgh Pirates Baseball Club

The Pittsburgh Pirates' roots in Pittsburgh stretch back to April 15, 1876, when the Pittsburgh Alleghenies brought professional baseball to the city by playing their first game at Union Park. In 1882, the Alleghenies joined the American Association league, the major league rival of the National League, and gained acceptance into the prestigious National League in 1887, playing their first game on April 30, when they defeated the Chicago Cubs, 6-2, at Recreation Park.

Most of the Alleghenies' stars jumped to the Players (Brotherhood) League in 1890 in a dispute over low salaries. The Players League was disbanded shortly thereafter and players were ordered to return to their original teams. Pittsburgh received the nickname "Pirates" at that time when they were accused of "pirating" a player from the Philadelphia club.

In 1891, the new Pittsburgh Pirates took over Exposition Park on the north side of the Allegheny River. The Pirates remained at Exposition Park until a dream was realized by owner Barney Dreyfuss when he opened the gates to Forbes Field on June 30, 1909. Bill Benswanger succeeded his father-in-law, Dreyfuss, as Pirate President, upon the latter's death in 1932.

On August 8, 1946, John Galbreath teamed with Tom Johnson, Frank McKinney and entertainer Bing Crosby and purchased the club from the Benswanger family. McKinney sold his interest to Galbreath and Johnson in 1950, and Galbreath purchased Johnson's shares in early 1982.

The Pittsburgh Athletic Co., as the Pirates are officially known, is now owned by the Galbreath family and Warner Communications, Inc. The Galbreaths currently hold 51 percent of the club's stock and were joined in the Pirate family by Warner Communications in January, 1983, when the entertainment conglomerate purchased 48 percent of the Pirate stock. The heirs of Bing Crosby and heirs of the John Harris family still control the other one percent share of club stock.

The Galbreath family interests in the Pirates are overseen by John, who serves as Chairman of the Board, and Dan, who is the team's President. The Galbreaths operate John W. Galbreath Realty Company, headquartered in Columbus, OH, and their Darby Dan Farm, which has produced a number of outstanding thoroughbred racehorses, including Kentucky Derby winners Chateaugay in 1963 and Proud Clarion in 1967. The Galbreaths also speak fondly of Roberto, named after the late Roberto Clemente, which won the 1972 English Derby, and Little Current, winner of the 1974 Preakness and Belmont.

Warner Communications, Inc. is concentrated primarily in the entertainment industry with whole or part ownership of Warner Brothers Studios, the Atari Corp., The Franklin Mint, Warner Amex Cable Corp. (which televises Pirate games over the Home Sports Entertainment cable network), Warner Books, Warner Brothers Records, Elektra Records, Asylum Records, Warner Cosmetics and the New York Cosmos of the North American Soccer League. Caesar Kimmel, Executive Vice President of Warner Communications, Inc., serves as Executive Vice President and a member of the Board of Directors of the Pirates.

THE WINNING TRADITION

The Pirates were one of baseball's most successful teams in the 1970s. They amassed a 916-695 won-lost record from 1970-79 for a .569 winning percentage. Over that span, the Bucs won six division championships, two National league pennants and a pair of World Championship titles in 1971 and 1979. They were the only National League team to finish no lower than third place in a season during the '70s, and the only third place finish came in 1973.

Joe L. Brown was General Manager of the club in the early '70s and was the architect of the Championship franchise of that decade. In 1976, Brown retired from his front office duties and three Vice Presidents are now responsible for the day-to-day operation of the club. Harding "Pete" Peterson is the club's Executive Vice President and oversees the entire operation as well as handling all player personnel matters. Joe O'Toole is the Pirates' Vice President for Administration and Jack Schrom serves as Vice President for Public Relations and Marketing.

HARDING PETERSON

Executive Vice President

Harding "Pete" Peterson has handled all player personnel matters for the Pirates since October 4, 1976, when he was named Vice President/Player Personnel, and he has overseen the entire Pirates' day-to-day operation since January 18, 1979, when he was named the club's Executive Vice President.

After being named to his vice president's post in 1976, the first trade Peterson made was both unique and significant. Going from the Pirates to the Oakland A's was the popular Manny Sanguillen. But the person Peterson acquired in the deal made the move all the greater because that person was A's manager Chuck Tanner. In completing the trade for Tanner, Peterson brought the Pirates a manager who provides the leadership and enthusiasm which have made the Pirates one of baseball's most exciting and competitive teams.

Peterson's trades also played a key role in bringing the Pirates their World Championship in 1979. His acquisitions of Tim Lincecum and Bill Madlock added defense and much-needed offensive punch to the Pirate lineup.

A native of Fords, New Jersey, Peterson has spent almost 30 years in the Pirate organization as a player, manager, and in various front office positions including farm director and scouting director.

Peterson graduated from Rutgers University in 1950 after leading its baseball team to the NCAA College World Series. A catcher, Peterson signed with the Pirates upon graduation but had his career interrupted by military service during the Korean War. Following the war, he spent parts of four seasons as a player with the Pirates until a broken arm suffered in a home plate collision hastened his retirement.

Following his retirement as a player, Peterson managed in the Pirate farm system for nine years before moving into the front office in 1967 as Minor League Director; he also took on the chores of Scouting Director in 1968.

The 54-year old Peterson makes his home in the Mt. Lebanon section of Pittsburgh. He has a daughter, Amy, and a son, Rick, who is a pitching coach in the Pirate farm system.

FROM FORBES FIELD TO THREE RIVERS STADIUM

The colorful history of Forbes Field spanned six decades and came to an end on June 28, 1970, when the Pirates played their final game in the great ballpark. On July 16, 1970, the Pirates entered the era of the multi-purpose stadium when they played their first game at Three Rivers Stadium. The Pirates managed Three Rivers Stadium until January, 1983, when the City of Pittsburgh took over control of the facility. With the city takeover came a number of major improvements, including installation of new AstroTurf, the addition of 5,000 seats and 37 new private lounge boxes and the unveiling of the DiamondVision video screen.

JOSEPH M. O'TOOLE

Vice President/ Administration

In his position of Vice President/Administration, Joe O'Toole brings over 37 years of Pirate baseball experience to the job.

Having grown up around Forbes Field in the 1930's, O'Toole joined the Pirate organization in 1946 following four years of service in the Merchant Marine during World War II.

In his early years with the team, O'Toole held many positions, including Traveling Secretary and Business Manager for the Pirates' farm club in New Orleans from 1949 to 1952. In 1952, he rejoined the parent club in the Public Relations and Marketing Department, and in 1953, he was named Ticket Manager.

In 1956, O'Toole became Assistant to the General Manager, serving under Joe L. Brown. He remained in that capacity until October 4, 1976, when he took on the title of Vice President/Administration.

In his current post, O'Toole handles the majority of business decisions made by the team. He also works as a liaison with the Spectacor stadium management team and is responsible for the operation of the team's Pirate City spring training complex in Bradenton, Florida. He was responsible for the development of the 149-acre training facility and was also the Pirates' coordinator in the design and construction of Three Rivers Stadium in Pittsburgh.

Born in Pittsburgh on January 4, 1925, O'Toole is a graduate of Schenley High School, where he served as the student manager for the football and basketball teams. He and his wife Betty have two sons, Dennis and Gary, and one grandson, Derek. Joe and Betty reside in the Westwood section of Pittsburgh.

JACK SCHROM

Vice President/Public Relations and Marketing

Jack Schrom, a native of Youngstown, Ohio, is entering his sixth season as Vice President of Public Relations and Marketing. In that capacity, Jack oversees the Pirates' Publicity, Promotions, Group and Season Ticket Sales and Broadcast departments.

Prior to joining the Pirates, the 38 year old Schrom served as General Manager of Trends and Associates, a Columbus, Ohio based advertising agency. In addition to working with Trends, he had other agency experience and also worked for the Xerox Corporation in Columbus.

While living in Columbus Jack joined former Ohio State and NBA star Bill Hosket in coordinating the successful television syndication of Ohio State University basketball on a network that included six stations and covered parts of four states.

In addition to his work with the Pirates, Jack is also treasurer of The Friends of the New Zoo, has served as honorary chairman of Epilepsy Awareness Month, and serves on the Family House Advisory Board. He is also a member of the University of Pittsburgh Golden Panthers, Duquesne University's Dukes Court, and Shannopin Country Club.

Jack did both undergraduate and graduate work in journalism and advertising at Ohio University from 1963-69. He took courses in Sports Administration as a graduate minor. He was a member of Ohio University's varsity golf team for three years and coached the freshman golf team in 1968.

Jack is single and makes his home in Mt. Lebanon, PA.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

In 1983, the Pittsburgh Pirates' community involvement took solid form as the Family House opened its doors. Located on 233 McKee Place in the Oakland area of Pittsburgh, Family House is a "special home" for adult patients, and their families, from outside the immediate Pittsburgh area who require hospitalization for cancer therapy, transplantations and other life-threatening illnesses.

The Pirate organization along with the Frank B. Fuhrer Wholesale Co. have each pledged a total of $150,000.00 to be given to the House over a three year period.

Last season, the Pittsburgh Pirates raised money for the House in a number of ways. They included a You and the Bucs Candy Bar produced by Geoffrey Boehm Chocolates, a Family House Game at Three Rivers Stadium featuring a softball game between a community team and the Pittsburgh Media All-Stars, and a raffle of Old-Timers uniforms in August. A check for $50,000.00 was presented to the University Health Center for the Family House by Pirate President Dan Galbreath, Captain Bill Madlock, Kent Tekulve, Larry McWilliams, Mike Easler and Steve Blass on September 27, 1983 at the official dedication.

The Family House is just one of the many community service projects that the Pittsburgh Pirates are involved in. For further information on the Pirates in our community, please write or phone for a free copy of our 1983 Report to the Community to:

CHUCK TANNER (MGR)

1984 OPENING DAY AGE: 54

BORN: July 4, 1929 in New Castle, PA.

RESIDES: New Castle, PA

HEIGHT: 6'1" WEIGHT: 200

PLAYING POSITION: Outfield

Chuck Tanner has already established himself as one of the three winningest managers in Pirate history and is fast moving up the ladder of the top winning managers of all time.

Tanner entered the 1984 campaign with 1,067 big league wins and ranked 31st on the all-time managerial list. Next in line is none other than Buc immortal skipper Danny Murtaugh, with 1,115 victories. And, only Murtaugh and Fred Clarke (1,422) have put together more wins in a Pirate uniform. Among active major league managers, Chuck came into the 1984 season ranked fourth behind Ralph Houk (1,533), Sparky Anderson (1,238), and Dick Williams (1,237).

Chuck's career record thru 1983 was 1,067-982 (.521) and his Pirate managerial mark was 579-494 (.540).

But numbers alone do not tell the entire story of Tanner's managerial tenure. Known for his enthusiasm and drive, Chuck is considered one of the most popular managers in the game by players, media representatives and fans. His "silver-lining" philosophy touches everyone who comes in contact with him.

A native of nearby New Castle and a graduate of Shenango High School, where he was a 10-letter star in baseball, basketball and football, Tanner began his 37-year professional baseball career in 1946. Originally signed by the Boston Braves, he performed in the outfield with the Milwaukee Braves, Chicago Cubs, Cleveland Indians and California Angels.

Tanner's major league playing career got off to a tremendous start when, on April 15, 1955, he made his major league debut for the Braves as a pinch-hitter in the eighth inning and homered on the first pitch. He became the sixth player to ever homer on the first pitch and 24th to homer in their initial at bat; coming into the 1984 season, 47 players had homered in their first at bat and ten have done it on the first pitch (none in the NL since Tanner).

Chuck went on to play 396 major league games and compiled a lifetime .261 average before leaving the majors for good in 1962; he actually played his final game in 1968 when he appeared as a pinch-hitter with El Paso.

Tanner's managerial career began with Quad Cities in 1963. In 1968, he led his El Paso club to the Texas League championship, and took Hawaii to the PCL playoffs in 1970, losing to Spokane, four games to none.

Along with piloting Hawaii in '70, Tanner also made his major league managerial debut with the Chicago White Sox when he replaced Don Guttridge on September 14 (Billy Adair served as interim manager from Sept. 3 until Tanner's arrival).

Tanner led the White Sox to a third place finish in 1971 and pushed them to an 87-67 second-place finish in 1972. For his 1972 leadership, Chuck was named THE SPORTING NEWS' Major League Manager of the Year.

In 1976, Tanner moved to the Oakland A's and put together an 87-74 second-place record in his only season there. On November 5 of that year, Pirates' Vice President Pete Peterson traded catcher Manny Sanguillen and $100,000 cash to Charlie Finley for Tanner.

In 1977, Tanner brought the running game to the Pirates' high powered offense and led the Bucs to a 96-66 record and a second-place finish; the 96 wins were most by Pirate team since the '71 Championship season. The next year, the Pirates mounted an unforgettable surge on the Eastern Division leading Phillies, coming back from an 11½ game, fourth place deficit on August 12, and getting as close as one game out on Sept. 19, before the Phils clinched on the season's next-to-last day in head-to-head competition with the Bucs. For his amazing '78 season, Tanner was named Manager of the Year by BASEBALL BULLETIN.

The high point of Tanner's career came in 1979 when he led the Pirates to a 98-64 Eastern Division Championship regular season finish (most wins by a Pirate team since 1909), a three-game sweep over Cincinnati for the National League pennant and a World Series win over Baltimore, four games to three, after falling behind, three games to one.

Chuck and his wife, Babs, have four sons; Mark, Gary, Brent and Bruce. Bruce is currently a promising relief pitcher in the White Sox' farm system. Chuck's hobbies include golfing and listening to music.

HARVEY HADDIX (Coach)

1984 OPENING DAY AGE: 58

BORN: Sept. 18, 1925 in Medway, OH

RESIDES: South Vienna, OH

PLAYING POSITION: Pitcher

Harvey Haddix is in his sixth season as the Pirates' pitching coach, having joined the club prior to the 1979 season. His major league pitching career began with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1952 (he spent the 1951 season and much of the '52 campaign in military service) and spanned 14 years. In his first full major league season (1953), Haddix compiled a 20-9 record in 36 appearances for St. Louis; the 20 wins represents his career high. While with the Cards, Harvey was a member of the N.L. All-Star team in 1953, 1954 and 1955. Haddix pitched for the Cardinals from '52 until May 11, 1956, when he was dealt to the Philadelphia Phillies. He remained with the Phils until December 6, 1957, when he was traded to the Cincinnati Reds. Harvey spent just one season with the Reds before joining the Pirates in a big seven-player trade in January, 1959. In his first year with the Pirates, Harvey established a major league record for the most consecutive batters retired in a game (36) on May 26, 1959, when he carried a perfect game against the Milwaukee Braves into the 13th inning before Joe Adcock collected a hit to hand Haddix a 1-0 loss. Harvey also played a big part in the Pirates' 1960 World Series triumph over the New York Yankees by winning two games in the classic Series. Haddix remained with the Bucs through the 1963 season before being traded to the Baltimore Orioles in December of '63. When he finished his playing career in 1965, Haddix had compiled a 136-113 record and a 3.63 ERA in 453 career games. Following his playing career, Harvey served for two seasons as pitching coach for the New York Mets. In 1968, he served as a minor league pitching coach for the Pirates, and joined the Reds in 1969 for one season as their big league pitching coach before returning to the Pirates' farm system in 1970. In 1971, he coached for the Boston Red Sox, and served from 1975 through 1978 with the Cleveland Indians before joining the Bucs in 1979. Harvey and his wife Marcia make their off-season home on his farm in South Vienna, OH. The Haddixes have three children; Teri (12-1-57), Ann (1-12-61) and Harvey (8-5-64). Harvey's hobbies include hunting and fishing.

GRANT JACKSON (Coach)

1984 OPENING DAY AGE: 41

BORN: Sept. 28, 1942 in Fostoria, OH

RESIDES: Pittsburgh, PA

PLAYING POSITION: Pitcher

Grant Jackson began his coaching career in March, 1983, when he was named the Pirates' bullpen coach. A veteran of over 18 major league seasons, Jackson began his pitching career with the Philadelphia Phillies in 1965. A 14-game winner (14-18) with the Phillies in 1969, Grant was traded to the Baltimore Orioles in December, 1970. While with the Orioles from 1971 through mid-1976, Jackson came into his own as a sound relief specialist, and appeared in the 1973 and 1974 League Championship Series and in the 1971 World Series with the O's. On June 15, 1976, Jackson was traded to the New York Yankees as part of a 10-player deal, and he went on to perform in the '76 ALCS and World Series with the Yankees. In November, 1976, Jackson was selected by the Seattle Mariners in the American League expansion draft, but never pitched for Seattle because he was acquired by the Pirates on December 7, 1976. While with the Pirates from 1977 thru September of 1981 — his contract was sold to Montreal in September — Jackson teamed with Kent Tekulve, Enrique Romo and others to give the Pirates one of the soundest bullpens in baseball. In 1979, Grant picked up a win over Cincinnati in the NLCS and also recorded a win over Baltimore in the '79 Series; he shares the major league LCS and World Series records by appearing in each with three different clubs. After finishing the 1981 season with the Expos, Grant was traded to Kansas City in January, 1982 and spent half a season with the Royals before being released. He resigned with the Pirates and appeared in one game with the Bucs before being offered the bullpen coaching job in the spring of 1983. In 692 career games, Grant compiled a record of 86-75 with 77 saves and a 3.46 ERA. Grant's full name is Grant Dwight Jackson, but is known to his friends as "Buck." Jackson and his wife Millie reside in Pittsburgh with their three children; Debbie (2-11-69), Yolanda (12-19-69) and Grant II (9-29-73). Grant spends his off-time listening to music and working around his home.

Bullpen Coach, Pittsburgh, 1983

JOE LONNETT (Coach)

1984 OPENING DAY AGE: 57

BORN: Feb. 7, 1927 in Beaver Falls, PA

RESIDES: Beaver, PA

HEIGHT: 5'10½" WEIGHT: 205

BATS: Right THROWS: Right

PLAYING POSITION: Catcher

Joe Lonnett is in his 14th year as a third base coach under Chuck Tanner, having joined Tanner when he took over the managerial reigns of the Chicago White Sox in 1971. Joe spent 15 seasons as a player in the professional ranks (he also spent 1951-52 in military service), having begun his career in 1947 in the Philadelphia Phillies farm system. Between 1956 and 1959, Joe appeared in 143 games with the Phillies, and finished his career with the Phils' Arkansas club in 1963. After his playing career ended, Lonnett scouted for six years (1963-65 and 1968-70) for the Phillies before joining Tanner in Chicago in 1971. . . . Lonnett moved with Tanner to the Oakland A's in 1976 and accompanied Chuck to Pittsburgh when the latter became skipper of the Bucs in 1977. Joe is considered one of the game's top third base coaches and is also credited with the development of the Pirates' fine young catching corps. Joe and his wife Alvida have five daughters; Marie (6-28-57), Judy and Joyce (2-15-59), Barbara (11-30-60) and Nancy (11-23-62). The Lonnets make their home in nearby Beaver, PA, where Joe enjoys golfing and landscaping his home. Joe's full name is Joseph Paul Lonnett. All of his daughters are graduates of Penn State and Marie is a teacher at a school for the deaf in Edgewood, PA.

As did Joe Lonnett, Al Monchak began his major league coaching career in 1971 when he joined Chuck Tanner in Chicago with the White Sox. And, like Lonnett, Monchak has been with Tanner ever since, serving as his teams' first base coach and defensive instructor. Al began a bright professional career in 1937, but three years (1943-45) of military service and a serious playing injury curtailed his chance at stardom. But although his only major league playing experience came in 19 games with the Philadelphia Phillies in 1940, Al played a total of 17 years of professional baseball, nine of those (1949-57) as a playing manager. In his first managerial season of 1949, he not only managed the Odessa club, but he also batted .335 and led the Longhorn League in runs (147), home runs (35) and stolen bases (36). Al continued to manage in the minor leagues until 1962 when he became a scout and farm system instructor with the California Angels. He remained in that position with the Angels until joining Tanner's staff with the White Sox in 1971. He moved with Tanner to Oakland in 1976 and again followed his skipper to the Pirates in 1977. Tanner gives Al tremendous credit for the improvement of defensive play by many members of his teams, and Monchak is recognized as one of the game's hardest workers. Al and his wife Audrey have two children; Alex Jr. (5-13-53) and Trona (1-22-58). Al's hobbies include photography and winter sports.

BOB SKINNER (Coach)

1984 OPENING DAY AGE: 52

BORN: Oct. 3, 1931 in LaJolla, CA

RESIDES: San Diego, CA

PLAYING POSITION: Outfield

Bob Skinner has been able to turn his credentials as an outstanding hitter into those of an even better batting instructor. In 1,381 career major league games, Bob compiled a .277 lifetime average with 103 home runs and 531 RBI with the Pirates, Cincinnati Reds and St. Louis Cardinals between 1954 and 1966. Skinner collected 13 or more home runs for four straight seasons with the Pirates between 1957 and 1960, and in 1962, hit a career-high 20 homers for the Pirates. A two-time All-Star with the Pirates, Bob was traded to Cincinnati in May, 1963, and was dealt again in June, 1964, to the St. Louis Cardinals. While with the Cardinals, he appeared in the '64 Series as a pinch-hitter (he was also in the '60 Series with the Bucs). Bob batted over 300 four times in his career and is one of 10 players to hit home runs onto or over the rightfield roof at Forbes Field; he accomplished it twice (1958 and 1962). Skinner finished up his playing career with the Cards in 1966, and entered the managerial ranks as the skipper of the Phillies' Class AAA San Diego club in 1967. In his first year as manager, Bob led San Diego to the Pacific Coast League championship. Bob opened the 1968 season at San Diego but was named interim manager of the Phillies on June 16 when Gene Mauch was fired. Skinner compiled a 48-59 record as the Phils' manager in 1968 and put together a 44-64 mark in 1969 before being replaced by George Myatt on August 7. Bob returned to San Diego in 1970 as a coach with the Padres and remained there through 1973 before becoming the Pirates' third base coach and batting instructor in 1974. He stayed with the Pirates until 1977 when he returned to the Padres. On May 29, 1977, Bob had a one-day stint as a manager when John McNamara was fired. In 1978, Skinner went to the California Angels as their batting coach and then returned to the Pirates in 1979 as batting instructor. Bob and his wife Joan have four sons; Mark (10-22-55), Craig (6-11-57), Drew (9-16-58) and Joel (2-21-61). Joel is a top catching prospect with the Chicago White Sox' organization. Bob's full name is Robert Ralph Skinner. Bob enjoys golf during the off-season and is also part owner of the San Diego School of Baseball.

Dr. Joseph Coroso

Team Physician

Dr. Joseph Coroso is in his fifth year as the Pirates team physician, having joined the club in 1980. A native of West Hartford, CT, Dr. Coroso received his bachelor's degree in 1973 from Holy Cross College. He received his medical degree in 1977 from Albany Medical College. Dr. Coroso served his three-year residency at Pittsburgh's St. Margaret's Hospital and was the hospital's Assistant Chief Resident in his final year. Dr. Coroso currently is in private practice in Penn Hills and is a resident of Plum Borough. He and his wife Mary Helen have one daughter, Angela, who was born in November, 1983.

TONY BARTIROME

Trainer

Tony Bartirome is in his 17th year as trainer of the Pirates, giving him the longest continuous service to the Pirates of anyone in the home dugout. Born May 9, 1932 in Pittsburgh, Tony attended Central Catholic and Connelly Vocational High Schools in the city. An outstanding first baseman, Tony was signed to his first professional contract by the Pirates' Pie Traynor on February 8, 1951. In his first professional season, Bartirome batted .282 with five home runs and 54 RBI in 123 games at Hutchinson, and in 1952, he was promoted to the major league club. In his only major league season, Tony batted .220 with no homers and 16 RBI in 124 games, and played the entire season without grounding into a double play. Tony's big league career was cut short by a two-year stint in the U.S. Army in 1953-54, but he returned to professional ball in 1955 and ended his 11-year professional playing career as a player coach with the Pirates' Triple A Columbus club in 1963. In 1964, Tony began his career as a trainer and stayed with Columbus in that capacity until 1967 when he joined the Pirates. In his position with the Pirates, Tony is in charge of the day-to-day health and conditioning of the Pirates, and works closely with the Pirates' team physicians and assistant trainer Kent Biggerstaff. Tony and his wife Carol make their off-season home in Bradenton, FL, the Pirates' spring training home. The Bartiromes have one son, Anthony (6-29-61) a student in the Duke University School of Law. Tony's hobbies include playing cards and watching old movies, and he can recite dialogue from numerous films of the 1930's, 40's and 50's.

JOHN HALLAHAN

Equipment Manager

In terms of seniority, John Hallahan ranks high on the list in the Pittsburgh organization. Known as "Hully" to his friends, he began his career in 1941 as the visiting bat-boy and clubhouse helper at Forbes Field.

Born in Pittsburgh on July 5, 1927, Hully attended Taylor Allderdice High School where he played basketball. After two years in the Army (1946-48), he became the assistant in the Pirate clubhouse.

In 1957, he was named the head equipment manager of the Pirates and has ably served in that post for the past 27 years. Responsible for creating a pleasant clubhouse atmosphere for the players and visitors, Hully also handles the ordering and care of the entire uniform and all the baseball equipment.

Hully and his wife Betty make their home in nearby Penn Hills and have five children: Ginny, Tom, Roberta, Gary and Stephen.

Team Orthopedist

Dr. Jack Failla joined the Pirates as their team orthopedist in 1981. A native of nearby New Castle, PA, Dr. Failla received both his undergraduate and medical degrees from Marquette University; he graduated with a B.S. in Biology/Math in 1964 and became an M.D. in 1968. While at Marquette, he played both football and basketball. Among Dr. Failla's several internships was an orthopedic surgery internship under former Pirate orthopedist Dr. Albert Ferguson at the University of Pittsburgh from 1973-76. Dr. Failla also served in the U.S. Navy from 1969-72 at Norfolk, VA, as a lieutenant, flight surgeon and medical examiner. Dr. Failla currently works primarily out of North Hills Passavant Hospital and is also associated with the North Hills Sports Medicine Center. He and his wife Carol reside in Sewickley, PA, with their four children, Anna Maria, Kristine, Paul and Mary Beth.

The KDKA Radio/TV Broadcast Team

Lanny Frattare

Lanny Frattare is the veteran of the Pirates' KDKA Radio and TV broadcast team, having entered the booth in 1976. A native of Rochester, NY, Lanny received his Bachelor of Science degree in communications from Ithaca College in 1970. From 1968 through 1974, he served as sports director of WBBF Radio in Rochester, and worked in 1974-75 as a play-by-play man for a Rochester TV station during the winter months. Lanny's professional baseball broadcasting career began in 1968 when he did play-by-play for the Geneva (NY) Senators in the Class A New York-Penn League.

In 1970, he did some television broadcasting of the Rochester Red Wings games in the International League. Frattare's association with the Pirates began in 1974 when he served as a broadcaster for the Charleston Charlies, the Bucs' AAA International League affiliate. Lanny worked in '74 and 1975 at Charleston before joining the Pirates' crew. Along with working the Pirates' radio and television games, Lanny also serves as sports editor of KDKA Radio, where he does daily "Ninety-to-Six" sports reports. Lanny and his wife Liz are both involved in a number of Pittsburgh area civic and charity projects. The Frattares reside in Upper St. Clair along with their two children, David and Megan.

Jim Rooker

Jim Rooker, author of 103 major league wins (including 82 with the Pirates) as a lefthanded pitcher, is beginning his fourth year as Lanny Frattare's sidekick on KDKA Radio and as a member of the KDKA-TV Pirate broadcast crew. A native of Lakeview, OR, Jim began his major league playing career with the Detroit Tigers in 1968 and moved on to the Kansas City Royals in 1969. He remained with the Royals until October 25, 1972, when he was acquired by the Pirates. In his first five years as a Pirate, "Rook" averaged 13 wins per season. Jim will best be remembered as the Pirates' starting pitcher in crucial Game 5 of the 1979 World Series against the Baltimore Orioles. In that game, Rooker allowed only one

Kent Biggerstaff

Kent Biggerstaff is in his third year as the Pirates' assistant trainer, aiding Tony Bartirome in the day-to-day care of the club. Born in Alton, IL, Biggerstaff received his undergraduate degree in Math in 1969 from Southern Illinois University. While in college, he served as general manager and trainer for the New York Mets' Marion (VA) club in the Appalachian League from 1967-69. Following graduation, he worked as a trainer for the Memphis Blues of the Texas League from 1970-72, followed by a five-year stint with the Mets' Tidewater (VA) affiliate in the International League. In 1978, Biggerstaff trained for the Milwaukee Brewers' Holyoke club in the Eastern League, and from 1979-80, he was the trainer for the Brewers' Vancouver club in the Pacific Coast League. In 1981, Biggerstaff joined the Pirates as their trainer at Portland (OR) in the PCL, and in the spring of 1982, he was named assistant trainer at the major league level. Along with working in the U.S., Kent has trained for several seasons in the Latin American winter leagues. A resident of Castanea, PA, Kent and his wife Earlene Mae have one child, Ashley Lynn.

Assistant Trainer

run over five innings while battling the Orioles' ace lefthander Mike Flanagan to a standoff before the Pirates came back to win the game and go on to win the Series in seven games. Bothered by arm problems throughout much of the '79 season, Rooker spent five months on the disabled list in 1980 before announcing his retirement at season's end. Rooker and his wife Betty have three children; David, who is an outfielder in the Kansas City Royals farm system, Stephanie and Jami. The Rookers reside in Library, PA, just outside of Pittsburgh.

John Sanders

John Sanders, KDKA-TV Sports Director, is in his fourth full season on the Pirate television broadcast team, having begun broadcasting Buc games as a fill-in for Lanny Frattare on some 1980 telecasts. A native of Manhattan, KS, Sanders received his bachelor's degree from Kansas State University in 1965. He spent 12 years at KMBC-TV in Kansas City, MO, before joining KDKA-TV in 1978. While at KMBC, he was presented with the Missouri Broadcasting Assn. Sports Reporting Award in 1974 and 1976. John joined the KDKA-TV family in February of '78 as weekend sports anchorman and was named sports director of the station in 1980. Along with his work on Pirate broadcasts, John also handles play-by-play chores for the Pittsburgh Spirit of the Major Indoor Soccer League, and also works on Atlantic 10 basketball coverage and on numerous assignments for ESPN. John and his wife Cherie have two children; Gabrielle and Hilary. The Sanders reside in Mt. Lebanon.

The Home Sports Entertainment Team

Bob Prince

Bob Prince, who originally joined the Pirates' broadcast team in 1948 and served as the Pirates' number one announcer from 1952-1975, is in his second year at the helm of the Home Sports Entertainment baseball crew. Home Sports Entertainment, an all-sports network formed by Warner Amex in 1983, has a four-year contract with the Pirates and will carry 60 games in this, the second year of the contract, and are expected to carry over 100 Pirate games in 1986. Prince is a legend in Pittsburgh broadcasting history, having begun as Rosey Rowswell's sidekick in 1946 after beginning his broadcasting career in 1941. Since coming to Pittsburgh, Prince has established himself as one of the most popular personalities in the city and has been honored many times for his civic and charitable work in the city over the years. His finest hour with the Pirates came on July 28, 1972, when Bob Prince Night was held at Three Rivers Stadium. After working for the Pirates through 1975, Prince worked for both the Houston Astros' television network and for ABC-TV. A native of Los Angeles, CA, Prince is a 1938 graduate of Oklahoma University, and also attended Pitt, Stanford and the Harvard Law School for two years. Bob and his wife Betty have two children, Nancy and Robert Jr., and reside in Pittsburgh. Along with his work for HSE, Bob also serves as a sports commentator for KDKA-TV.

Steve Blass

Former Pirate righthander Steve Blass is in his second year as part of the HSE broadcast crew. A native of Canaan, CT, Steve began his association with the Pirates when he signed his first professional contract in June, 1960. In 10 major league seasons (1964-74) with the Pirates, he compiled a record of 103-76 in 282 games, and ranks sixth on the Pirates' all-time list in strikeouts (896) and 14th in wins (103). A member of the 1972 All-Star team, Blass won 78 games in a five-year period between 1968 and 1972. Steve was a Pirate hero in the 1971 World Series against Baltimore when he picked up complete game wins in Games 3 and 7. His playing career came to a sudden halt when his control vanished in 1973, and he retired following the 1974 season. After retiring, Steve remained in Pittsburgh and worked in private business in the city, and is currently employed by the Frank B. Fuhrer Company. In 1982, he worked with Bob Prince on Pirate cable telecasts, and was retained when the cable rights were secured by Home Sports Entertainment in 1983. Steve and his wife Karen have two sons, David and Christopher, and the Blasses reside in Upper St. Clair.

Willie Stargell

Willie Stargell made a smooth transition from the field to the HSE broadcast booth in 1983 after a remarkable 20-year playing career with the Pirates. In 2,360 career games with the Pirates, Willie compiled a .282 batting average with 475 home runs (the last coming on 7/21/82 @Cin.) and 1,540 RBI. The Bucs' all-time home run, RBI and total base king, he also ranks in the Pirates' top 10 in games, at-bats, runs, hits, singles and doubles. A seven-time All-Star, Stargell's finest hour came in 1979 when he was named the National League's co-MVP and was also named MVP of both the League Championship Series and World Series. Known as "Pops" to his teammates, the Pirate captain announced early in 1982 that he would retire following the '82 campaign, and went on to be honored throughout baseball in the ensuing months, the highlight coming on September 6 when the Pirates retired his number "8" uniform and he was honored by the entire city. Since his retirement, Willie has been involved in a number of projects, including narration of selected works of Martin Luther King in a national tour with the Rochester Philharmonic in early 1983, the writing of his autobiography and his continuing fight against Sickle Cell Anemia. A native of Earlsboro, OK, Willie makes his year-round home in Pittsburgh.

OBTAINED: Signed as the Pirates' third round selection in June, 1979, Free Agent Draft.

1983 SEASON: Put together one of the finest rookie seasons in the N.L. in 1983 . . . Opened the year at Hawaii and was 11-6 with a 3.04 ERA when recalled on 7/20 when Steve Nicosia was placed on the D.L.; was leading the PCL in strikeouts (128) and ERA at time of recall . . . Made major league debut on 7/23 when he allowed two runs on four hits over eight innings to defeat the Giants, 5-2, @3RS . . . Made next start on 7/27 and had a no-hitter for 6.1 innings vs. the Padres @3RS until Alan Wiggins singled in the seventh; finished with a four-hitter and a 10-1 win . . . Flirted with a no-hitter again in his third start, vs. the Mets @Shea on 7/31 (2nd gm.), when he carried a no-hitter into the ninth before Hubie Brooks collected a one-out single. He coaxed Keith Hernandez to hit into a doubleplay to end the ninth and was pinch-hit for in the top of the 10th with score tied 0-0; Pirates lost the game, 1-0, in 12 innings . . . First loss came in his next start when the Expos defeated him, 7-1, on 8/5 @3RS . . . Record evened at 2-2 in next start when he lost to the Phillies on 8/10 . . . Picked up wins in each of his next four starts and was 5-1 in his final 10 starts of the season . . . Included in four-game win streak was a third shot at a no-hitter. Pitching vs. Cin. @3RS on 8/20, he had a no-hitter going for 6.2 innings until Dan Driessen picked up a two-out double; settled for a two-hitter and a 4-0 win . . . Other complete game shutout came on 9/16 when he scattered nine hits to defeat Montreal, 9-0 . . . Was the National League Player of the Week for the week ending 7/31, thanks to his near no-hitters vs. San Diego and NY . . . Had 10 or more strikeouts in a game three times during the season, including 13 vs. Cin. on 8/20; 13 Ks was the second highest total in the N.L. in '83 . . . Averaged 9.83 strikeouts per 9 IP . . . Compiled a 6-2 record pitching at home and was a perfect 5-0 vs. Western Division clubs . . . Finished as the top ERA pitcher in the PCL and also was named as the league's RHP on its post-season All-Star team.

CAREER: Was one of three pitchers to win 10 or more games at Portland in 1982 . . . Has compiled a minor league won-lost record of 45-38 and a 33-19 mark since 1981 . . . Was second in the Eastern League in strikeouts and tied for fifth in wins in '81 . . . Led the '81 Buffalo club in wins, ERA, starts and innings pitched . . . Ranked among the league leaders in wins and strikeouts while with Shelby in '80 . . . Features two kinds of fastballs, forkball and slider.

PERSONAL/MISC.: Jose DeLeon . . . Is single . . . Born in Dominican Republic but moved to Perth Amboy with his parents, two brothers and three sisters in 1972 . . . 1983 SEASON: Opened the season at Hawaii and was recalled by the Pirates on 5/26 when Jim Winn was optioned to Hawaii . . . Fanned four in his first appearance with the Bucs on 5/27 @Cin. . . Picked up first major league save on 6/22 when he worked four scoreless innings vs. Chi. . .

finished second on club in saves . . . Lowered ERA to 1.32 on 6/27 when he relieved Candelaria (ejected) in the third inning and pitched seven scoreless innings @St. Louis to pick up his first major league win; seven innings represents his longest major league outing . . . Seven-inning stint was followed by three rough outings, but rebounded by not allowing an earned run in next eight appearances (18.2 IP) between 7/12 and 8/6; picked up a win and three saves in those eight games . . . Struggled over the final month and a half of the season, compiling an 0-6 record with three saves in 22 games between 8/21 and season's end . . . Had two consecutive strong outings vs. the Padres in July. On 7/14 @SD, picked up the win when he relieved Scurry with bases loaded and one out and retired the side without a run scoring. On 7/25, relieved Rhoden in the sixth with bases loaded and none out and struck out the side, earning a save in that game.

CAREER: Was brought up from Portland to the Pirates four times during the '82 season and pitched well in 10 appearances with the Bucs, striking out 26 in 27 innings . . . Used exclusively as a reliever in every season but 1981 when he made 17 starts at Portland . . . Finished fifth on the Portland club in wins, innings pitched and strikeouts in 1981 despite opening the season at Buffalo . . . Struck out an amazing 114 batters in 90 innings at Shelby in '80 while recording 19 saves . . . Has now struck out 380 batters in 410 professional innings pitched for an average of 8.34 strikeouts per nine innings pitched.

1983 SEASON: Opened the season as the starting left fielder and leadoff hitter . . . Hit Bob Forsch's first pitch of the season on 4/5 for a home run @St. Louis; was one of four Pirates — Thompson, Mazzilli, Berra the others — to homer on Opening Day . . . Was successful in first 13 stolen base attempts before being caught on 4/30 by the Padres' Terry Kennedy @3RS . . . Got off to fast start at the plate, hitting safely in 16 of his first 19 games, and was batting .341 (28-for-82) on 5/3 . . . Scored seven runs in first five games . . . After opening as the starting left fielder, shifted to right after just four games, replacing the injured Dave Parker. Played nine games in right before shifting back to left on a platoon basis with Easler . . . After building average to .341 on 5/3, began to slip, falling to .258 on 6/2 before catching fire again . . . Saw duty at all three outfield positions from mid-June (when Marvell Wynne was acquired) to season's end . . . After being successful in 15 of first 17 steal attempts, faltered for a period, being caught six times in seven attempts between 5/6 and 6/27; problems due mainly to sore knee . . . Batted .345 (40-for-116) in 58 games between 6/28 and the end of the year . . . Stolen base touch returned in last month as he stole eight bases in as many attempts after 8/25 . . . Played in 1,000th career game on 7/16 @S.D. . . . Had four hits vs. the Padres on 7/26 and had seven three-hit games . . . Needs 12 steals to move ahead of Kiki Cuyler (130) and into 10th place on the Pirates' all-time SB list.

CAREER: Ranked seventh in the league in steals in '82, while setting career highs for games, at-bats, runs and steals . . . Ranked eighth in the NL in steals in '81 . . . Platooned with Easler in left field in 1980 and batted .345 with seven HR and 31 RBI as an outfielder and .313 as a pinch-hitter . . . Played second base, left field and pinch-hit for the Bucs in '79 and was 1-for-4 as a pinch-hitter in the '79 World Series . . . Was almost solely an infielder during early pro career . . . Made major league debut with the Dodgers on 6/30/72 and hit in 12 of his first 13 games to earn NL Player of the Week honors.

PERSONAL/MISC.: Leondaus Lacy . . . Wife's name is Suzanne . . . One child; Michael (7/22/65) . . . Graduate of McClymonds High School, Oakland, CA, the same school which produced Frank Robinson, Vada Pinson and Curt Flood . . . Attended Laney Jr. College in Oakland, CA . . . BILL MADLOCK (INF)

1984 OPENING DAY AGE: 33

BORN: Jan. 12, 1951 in Memphis, TN

RESIDES: Pittsburgh, PA

HEIGHT: 5'11" WEIGHT: 190

BATS: Right THROWS: Right

M.L. SERVICE: 10 years, 24 days.

OBTAINED: Acquired along with pitcher Dave Roberts and infielder Lenny Randle from San Francisco, 6/28/79, in exchange for pitchers Ed Whitson, Al Holland and Fred Breining.

1983 SEASON: Captured fourth National League batting title, becoming the 11th player in major league history to win the crown four times (see box below) . . . With the exception of Carney Lansford's 1981 AL title, Bill's four crowns are the only ones won by a righthanded batter in the majors since 1971 when Joe Torre won the NL crown . . . Also finished fifth in the NL in on-base pct. (.386) and was tied for fourth in game-winning RBI (14) . . . Led the Pirates in average and slugging pct. (.444) . . . Opened the season less than 100 percent after undergoing arthroscopic surgery on 3/14 to remove loose bone fragments in left knee joint. Recovered sufficiently enough to be in Opening Day lineup . . . Opened the season batting .237 (9-for-38) after nine games, but then hit safely in 23 of 25 games to raise ave. to .346 on June 1. Included in that 25-game stretch was a club-high 12-game hitting streak between 5/2 and 5/25 . . . Had a flareup of phlebitis in the upper part of his left leg in early May which forced him to miss six games. Was bothered again by the problem in early June but did not miss any action . . . Picked up 600th career RBI on 6/20 when he drove in two runs vs. the Cubs . . . Notched 1,500th career hit on 7/21 when he singled off LA's Steve Howe @3RS . . . Had 49 multiple-hit games and was hitless in just 34 of the 130 games in which he played . . . Fanned just 24 times in 530 plate appearances for a ratio of one K per 22.1 appearances, ranking third in the NL behind teammate Johnny Ray and Chi.'s Bill Buckner . . . Was the only Pirate representative on the 1983 All-Star team . . . Suffered a torn tendon in his left calf @St. Louis on 9/5 (2nd gm.) and was slowed by the injury for the remainder of the season . . . 1984 OPENING DAY AGE: 29

BORN: Mar. 25, 1955 in New York, NY

RESIDES: Greenwich, CT

HEIGHT: 6'1" WEIGHT: 190

BATS: Switch THROWS: Right

M.L. SERVICE: 7 years, 28 days

OBTAINED: Acquired from the New York Yankees, 12/22/82, in exchange for outfielder Jerry Aubin, pitcher Tim Burke, catcher John Holland and infielder Jose Rivera.

1983 SEASON: Opened the season as the Pirates' center fielder . . . Was one of four Pirates — Lacy, Berra, Thompson the others — to hit a home run in the season opener @St. Louis on 4/5 . . . Was a catalyst to the Pirates' early season offense, hitting safely in 15 of his first 21 games . . . Started every game in center field until 6/12 when he failed to start because of a lower back strain. Played only one other game — as a late-inning replacement — in center after that, with his next start coming as a first baseman on 7/24; was initially replaced in center by Lee Lacy but was permanently displaced when the Bucs acquired Marvell Wynne on 6/14 . . . Was batting .284 on 6/12 and was leading the NL in walks while ranking second in on-base pct. (.420) . . . Thru 6/11, had reached base in all 23 games in which he appeared in starting lineup as a leadoff batter, including 12 times in his first at-bat . . . After losing his starting position, he appeared in 57 games and made only five starts, all at first base; also played parts of four games in left and one in center . . . Along with missing time in mid-June with lower back strain, also was unavailable later in the month due to a sore right shoulder . . . Batted only .129 (9-for-70) with no HR and two RBI from 6/12 to end of season . . . Put together three three-hit games while playing regularly early in the season.

CAREER: Opened the '82 season with Texas after being traded by the Mets during spring training . . . Was in and out of the Rangers' lineup due to shoulder and wrist injuries . . . Played left and center field for the Rangers and played outfield, firstbase and was a DH after being traded to the Yankees midway thru the '82 season . . . Made spectacular major league debut with the Mets in 1976, hitting three-run pinch-hit HR vs. Chicago in his second career plate appearance on 9/8 . . . Also hit a big game-winning HR vs. the Pirates on 9/20/76, helping to knock the Bucs out of contention in NL East . . . Led Mets in batting in 1978 . . . Finished 10th in the NL batting race in 1979; also was third in league in batting with men on base (.354) . . . '79 feats included 19-game hitting streak . . . Was a member of the '79 All-Star team and hit game-tying HR off Texas' Jim Kern in eighth inning; then drew bases loaded walk off NY's Ron Guidry to force home deciding run . . . Opened the '80 season at first base and split year between first and center field . . . Slowed by lower back and elbow ailments in '81 . . . Moved between first, center and left in '81 . . . Ranks in Top Ten in every offensive category in Mets' history . . . Minor league accomplishments include leading Texas League in walks and finishing second in steals in 1976 . . . On 6/8/75, stole an incredible seven bases in a seven-inning game.

PERSONAL/MISC.: Lee Louis Mazzilli . . . Known as "Maz" . . . Wife's name is Dani . . . Earned All-American honors in baseball at Lincoln High School, Brooklyn, NY . . . Was ambidextrous in amateur baseball, but has thrown righthanded since signing professionally . . . Won eight national speed skating championships between 1965 and 1971 . . . Captured St. Louis Silver Skates Championships in 1965, 1966 and 1967.

MAZZILLI HIGHLIGHTS

MOST HITS/GAME: 4 hits, eight times, the last on 6/28/80 (1st game) at Philadelphia

MOST RBI/GAME: 5 RBI, 9/14/80 vs. Chicago

GRAND SLAMS: (1), 7/4/78 (1st game) vs. Philadelphia, 8th inning off Christenson

LONGEST HITTING STREAK: 1983: 5 games Career: 19 games (1979)

REGULATION GAME: A regulation game consists of nine innings unless extended because of a tie score or shortened because (1) the home team needs none of its half of the ninth or only part of it; or (2) because the umpire-in-chief calls the game after five completed innings. A regulation game may be less than five innings if the home team is ahead after the first of the fifth, or takes the lead or ties the score while at bat in the fifth.

TIE GAME: A regulation game that is called by the umpire-in-chief when both teams have the same number of runs is a tie game. Individual player performances are official and are entered in the records, but the game does not count in the League standings and may be re-scheduled at a later date.

SUSPENDED GAMES: In summary, a game can now become a suspended game, and not a called game, when the visiting team, in a legal game, has tied the score or taken the lead and the home club has not regained the lead or completed its turn at bat. Example: home team leading 5-4 in the top of the 6th; visiting team scores 2 runs for 6-5 lead; rain forces game to be called. This is now a suspended game, and does not revert back to the last completed inning. The Official Playing Rule is 4.11(d). It reads:

"(d) A called game ends at the moment the umpire terminates play.

EXCEPTION: If the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, the game becomes a SUSPENDED game in each of the following situations:

(1) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score and the home team has not scored;

(2) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

PROTESTED GAMES: Even if it is held that the protested decision violated the rules, no replay of the game will be ordered unless in the opinion of the League President the violation adversely affected the protesting team's chances of winning the game.

M.L. SERVICE: 4 years, 118 days

OBTAINED: Acquired from Atlanta, 6/29/82, in exchange for pitcher Pascual Perez and infielder Carlos Rios.

1983 SEASON: Put together finest major league season, setting career highs in wins, complete games, shutouts, strikeouts, innings pitched and starts . . . Ranked in the top 10 among NL pitchers in shutouts (tied for second), strikeouts (third), wins (tied for sixth), complete games (tied for seventh) and innings pitched (ninth) . . . Finished fifth in the voting for the N.L. Cy Young Award . . . Was selected as the lefthanded starter on THE SPORTING NEWS' 1983 post-season All-Star team; also tied for fourth among all pitchers in the NL on UPI's post-season All-Star squad . . . His 199 strikeouts were the most by a Pirate pitcher since Bob Veale fanned 213 in 1969 . . . Finished with a perfect 8-0 mark vs. the Western Division, defeating every NL West club at least once, with the Astros and Braves being two-time victims . . . Made first appearance of the season @Hou. on 4/9 and tossed a two-hit shutout to defeat Joe Niekro, 1-0; it was the first of three two-hitters he would throw on the season. He also had two-hitters vs. the Dodgers on 7/9 and vs. the Mets on 9/20 . . . Picked up first career one-hitter on 4/26 @3RS when he defeated the Giants, 3-0; only hit was a one-out single by Bob Brenly in the fifth inning . . . Had a 3-2 record and an ERA of 1.85 after six starts . . . Won four straight decisions twice during the season. First time was in five starts between 5/20 and 6/9 when he upped record to 7-3. Other time was in eight starts between 8/12 and 9/20 when his record jumped to 15-6 . . . Was 7-3 in 17 starts after the All-Star break and was 12-5 in his last 27 starts . . . Had a road record of 8-3 on the season . . . Led all Pirate pitchers in starts, complete games, shutouts, homers allowed, walks and strikeouts and tied with Candelaria in wins . . . As a batter, his 10 sacrifice bunts tied Ray for club lead.

CAREER: Opened the 1982 season in the Braves' bullpen but was immediately inserted into the Pirates' rotation following trade . . . Won first three decisions with the Pirates and was 5-1 with a 1.70 ERA in first six Buc starts . . . Completely revamped pitching style while at Richmond in 1981, learning faster windup from Braves' minor league pitching coach Johnny Sain (same person given credit for Jim Kaat's mid-career switch to accelerated delivery) . . . Won 11 of last 12 games (1.06 ERA) at Richmond after learning new style . . . Also had two complete game wins in Sept., '81 with Braves . . . Combined with Gene Garber for shutout in major league debut, vs. NY on 7/17/78 . . . Had four shutouts (three combined) in rookie season and did not allow a run in first 14 big league innings . . . Won seven straight decisions in 1978 . . . Biggest moment of '78 came when he combined with Garber to stop Pete Rose's hitting streak at 44 games, a National League record. Made a "grab and hope" catch to rob Rose of a hit in the game . . . Was N.L. Player of the Week for July 14-20, 1980, recording two complete game wins.

PERSONAL/MISC.: Larry Dean McWilliams . . . Sometimes called "McCloud" by teammates . . . Wife's name is Vicki . . . Three children; Maurine Kelly (12/16/79), Tara Colleen (4/17/81) and Brenna Rae (7/4/83) . . . Graduate of L.D. Bell High School, Hurst, TX, in 1972 . . . Attended Paris Jr. College, Paris, TX, where he played baseball . . . Enjoys golf and fishing in his spare time.

M.L. SERVICE: 6 years.

OBTAINED: Signed as the Pirates' third round selection in the June, 1975, Free Agent Draft.

1983 SEASON: Slowed once again by shoulder miseries in 1983 . . . Placed on 21-day disabled list on 3/29 with inflammation in right shoulder . . . Saw first action after being sent to the Pirates' Class AA Lynn club in the Eastern League on 4/26 for a 20-day rehabilitation assignment . . . Was 0-1 with an 8.10 ERA in two starts at Lynn before being activated by the Pirates on 6/10 . . . Made first appearance when he worked a scoreless inning in relief on 6/15 vs. Mtl. . . . Followed up with an impressive five scoreless innings to defeat Chicago on 6/20 (second game) . . . Made first start on 6/25 and lasted only 4.2 innings; did not get a decision . . . Was defeated by Cards in next start on 7/1, pitching only 2.1 innings . . . Next start came on 7/11 @S.F. and was his most impressive. Allowed one earned run in seven innings and left with game tied 2-2; Pirates won for Sarmiento on an Easley ninth-inning HR . . . Worked six innings to pick up a win in next start, @S.D. on 7/16, but struggled in next two starts and was again placed on the 21-day D.L. on 7/29 with chronic tendinitis in his shoulder . . . Was reactivated on 9/2 and made one four-inning appearance vs. the Cards on 9/5 but was unable to pitch following that outing . . . Reported to Pirates' Florida Instructional League camp following season and pitched every fourth day while playing right field on days he did not pitch . . . Did not allow a run in his first four appearances (three outings of three innings and one start which lasted five innings) but began suffering arm discomfort again on 10/31 in his last Florida appearance . . . As a hitter, led the Instructional League in home runs . . . Underwent arthroscopic surgery on right shoulder after Instructional League schedule . . . Has also had three major operations on the shoulder, plus surgery on his right elbow in August of 1977.

CAREER: Rebounded from post-1981 shoulder surgery to put together outstanding 1982 campaign . . . Set career highs for wins and strikeouts . . . Ranked seventh in the NL strikeout race, while placing in a 10th place tie in wins . . . Led the '82 Pirates in strikeouts and wins, and tied Rhoden for high in CG . . . Spent almost two full months on the D.L. in 1981, first (5/2 to 6/5) with shoulder problems and again (8/6 to 8/25) when he suffered cut fingers in an auto accident with teammate Jim Bibby . . . Underwent third shoulder operation following '81 season when team orthopedist Dr. Jack Failla removed bone protrusions which were causing discomfort . . . Also underwent shoulder surgery following '79 season and was not activated in '80 until 5/1; came on strong in '80, averaging 7.5 IP and 7.4 strikeouts per appearance . . . Picked up a win and a save in the '79 NLCS vs. Cin. and won Game Two of the World Series with two scoreless innings of relief . . . Pitched in only one AAA game in '77, but made the major league club the following spring . . . In '78, tied for club high in wins and was second in starts, CG, IP and strikeouts . . . Was selected THE SPORTING NEWS' Rookie Pitcher of the Year and to spots on the BASEBALL DIGEST and BASEBALL BULLETIN Rookie All-Star teams . . . First major league win came on 4/25/78 when he tossed a complete game to defeat the Mets, 2-1 . . . First major league shutout came on 5/14/78 when he blanked the Padres, 1-0 . . . Led the Western Carolinas League in complete games and innings pitched in '76.

PERSONAL/MISC.: Don Allen Robinson . . . Wife's name is Rhonda . . . Two children; Brad (10/21/79) and Brent (10/26/82) . . . Graduate of Ceredo-Kenova (WV) High School, where he excelled in baseball and football (quarterback) . . . Enjoys music and golf.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: 8 years, 124 days.

OBTAINED: Signed as a non-drafted free agent, 7/16/69.

1983 SEASON: Moved into ninth place on the major leagues' all-time saves list in '83 . . . Is one of 58 pitchers in major league history to appear in 600 or more games, surpassing the 600-game mark in '83 . . . Was second in the NL in appearances (behind the Cubs' Bill Campbell-82) and tied for first with the Cubs' Lee Smith in games finished (56) in '83 . . . Led the Pirates in games, games finished and saves . . . Opened the season by allowing only one earned run in his first 17 appearances (18.2 IP) between 4/7 and 5/20 with the one earned run coming on 4/20 (2nd gm.) @NY when he lost to the Mets, 7-5; was 1-1 with one save over that 17-game span . . . Picked up three wins and six saves between 5/13 and 6/20 (1st gm.), giving up 6 ER in 22.1 IP over that 16-game span . . . Was 3-2 with six saves and a 2.08 ERA in 35 appearances prior to the All-Star break . . . Was almost untouchable following the break, picking up three wins and nine saves in 22 games — including a win and four saves on the Bucs' 9-1 West Coast road trip immediately following the break — between 7/8 and 8/15; allowed only two earned runs (both coming on 7/14 @SD) in 26.2 IP (0.68 ERA) over those 22 games . . . Had slightly less success from mid-August to season's end, going 1-3 with three saves in a 19-game span between 8/18 and 9/27; 6 ER, 29 IP, 1.86 ERA . . . Finished the season with an opposing team batting average of .225 (78-for-347) . . . Declared free agency in late October and was selected by 13 teams — including the Pirates who retained negotiating rights — in November's free agent re-entry draft; was the second most sought-after player in the draft, behind Darrell Evans who was selected by 17 teams and who signed with Detroit in mid-December.

CAREER: Led all major league pitchers in appearances and was second in games finished while finishing fifth in the NL saves race in 1982 . . . Was fifth in the running for the '82 NL Rolaids Relief Man Award . . . Was the Pirates' Pitcher of the Year in '82 . . . Led the Pirates in saves, appearances and games finished in 1980 . . . His 21 saves and 78 appearances in '80 ranked sixth and second (tie), respectively, in the NL . . . Tied a major league record by winning three games in successive appearances between 5/6 and 5/9/80 . . . Lost last seven appearances in '80 and extended losing streak to ten with three losses beginning the '81 season . . . In 1979, led NL in appearances and games finished, while finishing second in saves and fourth in the balloting for the Cy Young Award . . . Broke his own record for appearances and tied his own club saves record in '79; his 31 saves in '78 edged him past Dave Giusti (30) for the club record for most saves in a season . . . Earned saves in both ends of a twin bill twice in '79 . . . Saved World Series Games 2, 6 and 7 and was the losing pitcher in Game 4 . . . Led the NL in games finished in '78, and was named the NL Pitcher of the Month for August, 1978 . . . Broke Pirate record of games pitched in 1977, when he surpassed Pete Mikkelsen's 1966 mark of 71 . . . Joined the Pirates from Charleston on 6/26/75 and picked up first major league save on 6/30/75 vs. Montreal . . . First big league win came on 9/2/75 vs. NY . . . In 1973, led Eastern League in appearances and tied for lead in wins.

PERSONAL/MISC.: Full name is Kenton Charles Tekulve . . . Wife's name is Linda . . . Three children; Chris (11-4-77), Jon (3-2-79) and Beth (11-19-81) . . . Did not pitch professionally until he was 22 years old . . . Graduate of Marietta (OH) College with a BA in Education, and was the mainstay of the team's pitching staff . . . Enjoys golf and bowling . . . Is interested in a broadcasting career following retirement.

... Was placed on 15-day DL on 8/8 when lower back spasms hospitalized him; was reinstated to active list on 9/1 ... 1983 marked first time in his career that Gene did not hit a home run; his 201 career home runs are more than any player who finished the season on the Bucs' active roster.

CAREER: Was slowed in '82 by broken bones in right hand which forced him to DL two different times ... Collected 200th HR on 8/25/82 vs. LA ... Made sixth LCS and fourth World Series appearance in 1983 with the Cards; other post-season appearances came with Oakland (1971-75) ... Spent first seven years with Oakland before opting for free agency following the 1976 season and signing with San Diego ... Became first player to hit home runs in first two times at bat in a World Series (10/4/72); he added two other homers in that Series, as he batted .348 with nine RBI ... His .913 slugging pct. in the '72 Series and his 11 walks in the '73 Series are records ... Played in 199 consecutive games, including ALCS and WS, in 1973-74 ... Hit three grand slams in 1974 ... Was the top fielding catcher in the NL with the Padres in 1979, committing only one error in 465 chances for a .998 fielding pct. ... Led the AL in walks in 1974 and paced the NL in the same category in 1977 ... Was a member of the 1975 AL All-Star team ... As a re-entry free agent in 1976, became the first player to ever be chosen by the maximum 13 clubs in the draft (maximum was eliminated with current Basic Agreement).

PERSONAL/MISC.: Fury Gene Tenace ... Wife's name is Linda ... Three children; Stacy (4/25/70), Merinda (3/3/72) and Gina (9/29/76) ... Graduate of Valley Local High School, Lucasville, OH, where he played baseball and football ... Caught both Jim "Catfish" Hunter's and Vida Blue's 20th victories in 1971 and also caught Blue's no-hitter in 1970 ... Enjoys hunting and fishing in his spare time.

*COMBINED SHUTOUTS: CANDELARIA and Rhoden (April 17); CANDELARIA and Tekulve (Aug. 13); CANDELARIA and Guante (Sept. 24)

HOW TO FIGURE: BATTING AVERAGE — Divide the number of hits by the number of at bats. EARNED RUN AVERAGE — Multiply the number of earned runs by nine, then divide the result by the number of innings pitched. SLUGGING PERCENTAGE — Divide the total bases of all safe hits by the total times at bat as defined in Rule 10.02(a). SAVE — Credit a pitcher with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions: (1) Is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club; and (2) is not the winning pitcher; and (3) Qualified under one of the following conditions: (a) enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches at least one inning. (b) Enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, or at bat, or on deck; or (c) pitches effectively for at least three innings.

Note—In some cases, innings pitched and ERA do not match career totals shown in individual biographies. Prior to 1982, innings pitched were rounded off to the nearest whole inning (133.2 to 134) and ERA was calculated off the whole number. Beginning in 1982, innings pitched were listed exactly, including thirds of innings, and ERA was calculated from that exact figure.

PIRATES LEAD N.L. IN TRIPLE PLAYS

The Pirates and Cardinals share the National League lead in triple plays with 29 apiece since 1901.

The Detroit Tigers lead the major leagues in that department with 31 since 1901. The Baltimore Orioles organization is next with 30 (23 of them coming during their years as the St. Louis Browns).

The Cubs, Padres and Cardinals accounted for the three triple plays turned in the National League in 1983, while Oakland and Minnesota turned the two in the American League last year.

Following the Bucs and Cards in that time frame are Boston (28), the Cubs and Indians (26 each), White Sox and Twins (20 in Washington and five in Minnesota) with 25 each, Giants (24), Phillies and Yankees (22 each).
